

HPE Education Services VATC VMware vSphere Promotions

Why HPE for VMware training?

HPE US and HPE Canada are VMware Premier VATCs and are among the largest official VMware Authorized Training Centers (VATCs) in the world. We offer:

- VMware Certified Instructors (VCIs) and authorized courseware
- Value-add HPE technology content
- Value-add pricing for training and certification prep
- Hands-on training using the latest HPE hardware
- Global training capability and convenient scheduling options
- Flexible delivery including VILT, ILT and dedicated scheduling options
- Payment flexibility through HPE Training Credits for Education
- Commitment to innovation and quality

We are in the process of updating our VMware Promotions...so check back to this page soon.

In the meantime, check out full lineup of VMware courses at hpe.com/us/training/vmware.
