

HP Insight Cluster Management Utility (CMU) H7H09S

This presentation reviews the main features and advantages of the HP Cluster Management Utility v7.2 & v7.3. The core objective of this course is to provide participants with an overview of HP Insight CMU capabilities. The course will focus in aspects so such as provisioning a cluster, monitoring and management tools.

HP Insight Cluster Management Utility (CMU)

Price USD $400

Links to local schedules, pricing and registration US/Canada
Mexico/Latin America
Brazil

HP course # H7H09S

Category ProLiant

Duration 4 hours

Audience

- Administrators, engineers and consultants who install, configure, and support HP Insight CMU

Course objectives

- Provide participants with an overview of HP Insight CMU
- Provide the basis for provisioning a cluster, monitoring and management tools

Benefits to you

- Course provides participants opportunity for quick integration, implementation and use of HP ProLiant Gen9 in their environment

Next steps

- HP Moonshot Administration (H4C03S)

Course outline

Module 1: What is CMU?

- Introduction, design goals, and purpose
- /opt/cmu; GUI launch; CMU commands; CLI

Module 2: Three ways to provision a cluster

- Bare metal
- Backup and cloning
- Diskless

Module 3: CMU monitoring

- Client daemons; collect; extended
- GUI; ActionAndAlertsFile.txt

Module 4: CMU management tools

- Power and UID control; console access;
- Pdsh/CMU_Diff and pdcp
- Custom menu support

Module 5: Overview of the new and changed features in CMU 7.3

Learn more at

hpe.com/us/training/proliant