

Hewlett Packard Enterprise

Course Datasheet

Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) Certification — Video Instructor Self-Paced e-Learning

Education Services course product number – IT Security Library

Course length – 34.5 hours

Delivery mode – VISPEL

This course will not just prepare you for CISSP Certification, but also provides the practical, detailed understanding and knowledge of security topics that will be of valued use to you and your company. Our product focuses not only on the areas necessary for the CISSP examination, but also on a more detailed and practical perspective that will give you competitive skills in the real world as well.

Audience

- This course is aimed for security professionals and IT engineers

Benefits to you

- Instructor lectures in a video classroom environment
- 1,830 pages printable CISSP® Student Study-Guide developed by Shon Harris
- 24×7 Learning Zone Live Mentor Support

Detailed course outline

- Course Introduction
- Information Security and Risk Management
- Access Control Domain Objectives
- Cryptography Objectives
- Physical Security Objectives
- Security Architecture and Design Objectives
- Law, Investigation and Ethics Objectives
- Telecommunications and Networking
- Business Continuity Objectives
- Application Security
- Operations Security Objectives

© Copyright 2015, 2016 Hewlett Packard Enterprise Development LP. The information contained herein is subject to change without notice.

c04769418, Created August 2015; Updated January 2016, Rev. 1
IT Security Library A.00