9. Data Security. HPE implements technical and organizational measures to protect Customer-provided SaaS Data. The Supporting Material for each HPE SaaS describes the measures implemented for such HPE SaaS.

10. HPE SaaS Performance and Operations. HPE's ability to deliver HPE SaaS will depend on Customer's reasonable and timely cooperation and the accuracy and completeness of any information from Customer needed to deliver HPE SaaS.

So long as during the SaaS Order Term, HPE does not materially degrade the functionality, as described in Supporting Material of HPE SaaS, HPE reserves the right: (i) to modify the systems and environment used to provide HPE SaaS; and (ii) to make any changes to HPE SaaS that it deems necessary or useful to maintain or enhance the quality or delivery of HPE's services to its customers, the competitive strength of or market for HPE's services, or HPE SaaS' cost efficiency or performance. HPE may use global resources, such as HPE affiliates or third parties in worldwide locations to provide HPE SaaS and perform its obligations.

To the extent that HPE provides software in connection with HPE SaaS, HPE grants Customer a non-exclusive and non-transferable license to use the version or release of the HPE-branded software listed in the Order or the applicable Supporting Material (the "Licensed Software") during the SaaS Order Term. Unless otherwise stated in writing, Customer may only use the Licensed Software for internal purposes and not for further commercialization. For non-HPE branded software, the third party's license terms will govern its use. HPE may monitor and audit Customer use of the Licensed Software and compliance with any associated license terms and, if HPE makes a license management program available, Customer agrees to install and use it within a reasonable period of time. Customer may not sublicense, assign, transfer, rent, or lease the Licensed Software except as permitted in writing by HPE.

Modifications to this Agreement will be made only through a written amendment signed by both parties. The Agreement will be governed by the laws of the country of HPE or the HPE affiliate accepting the Order and the courts of that locale will have jurisdiction; however, HPE or its affiliate may bring suit for payment in the country where the Customer affiliate that placed the Order is located.
